

Side event of the 70th session of the Executive Committee

High Level Segment on Statelessness: Civil Society Perspectives and Contributions

Moderated by Chris Nash, Director, European Network on Statelessness and with special appearance from 2019 Nansen Award Winner Azizbek Ashurov, Director, Ferghana Valley Lawyers Without Borders

Speakers:

- Welcome by Filippo Grandi, UN High Commissioner for Refugees
- Amal de Chickera, Co-Director, Institute on Statelessness and Inclusion
- Catherine Harrington, Manager, Global Campaign for Equal Nationality Rights
- Khalid Hussein, Chief Executive, Council of Minorities
- Liesl Muller, Statelessness Project Attorney, Lawyers for Human Rights

World Council of Churches

Global Campaign
for Equal Nationality Rights

Central Asian Network on Statelessness

European Network on Statelessness

Institute on Statelessness and Inclusion

Americas Network on Nationality and Statelessness
For rights to nationality for all

Statelessness
Network
Asia Pacific

southern african nationality
network

This event will showcase efforts made to end statelessness from a civil society perspective and provide an opportunity to take stock of significant achievements, identify steps States are encouraged to take, discuss the role of civil society in mobilizing action and identify key obstacles to ensuring nationality rights for all. The event will showcase work by civil society activists and experts from different geographic regions and covering different thematic issues. A light lunch will be provided at 13:15.

Monday 7 October 2019

13:30-15:00

Palais des Nations – Salle des pas perdus

Attendance is open to all those with accredited badges.

